DARK SOULS

1

"a challenging journey through a dying world"

- Jet Black Ninja

-Katari

In the Discord before DS1, the server was unformed, shrouded by easy games. A discord of Overwatches, Witchers, and everlasting Counter Strikes. But then there was Katari, and with Katari came Society. Easy games, and hard. Direct Lore, and Environmental. And of course, Soulslike and Not Soulslike.

Then from the Dark they came, and found Dark Souls the game.

Parth, early victim of the plague.
The Witch named Zeze, and his tendency to disappear.
Astro, Father of Pink Life, and his faithful knights.
And everyone else who fell victim to the disease.

-Wild Yogi Adityanath

COUNTER STRIKE

GLOBAL OFFENSIVE

In Counter-Strike's world of fire and steel,
Where terrorists clash with those who wield,

A game of strategy, skill, and might,
Where every move could win the fight.

GG and goodbye

-Mama(_AM_)

One of the best post apocalyptic roleplaying game, you can complete fallout games just by talking (without ever using a weapon) just think about it you go the final boss and tell him to go back and never return and he just leaves.

katari was the one who told me about this game when I first got the game I played it for like 60 hours in 4 days ,So yeah it is indeed addictive

If you ever feel like playing it just remember one thing "WAR NEVER CHANGES"

- Astro Ice

best game, you can do anything you want to do in this game from building to fighting gods, making a assault rifle with a shark, and there is just ton of things to do, even you can also play as different classes

Jon_Snow

One must reach the clouds to learn to fly

Astro

This is a tale of the great winged hussar who flew across the map of Arabia.

After 7 hours of fierce battle between 4 cunning armies and economies after successfully plundering the most well protected Kingdom of Katari Baba, dismantling one of the greatest economies of Astro. Everything was coming to a prestigious end but little did the great plunderer parth knew that he can't kill a man's will to live.

After destroying the vast Kingdom of Rajiv it was time for him to celebrate but the celebration ended real quick when the news arrived that 7 artillery units were destroyed near Rajiv's kingdom. To investigate the cause of such atrocity more troops were sent but what they saw shocked them to their core. One of the Winged Hussar from Rajiv's army was still alive and was refusing to surrender after several tries not a single warrior could find and kill the Hussar.

But as the Hussar was moving towards east it became a problem for Astro's hidden Kingdom as soon as the news reached astro he reached out to his enemy's enemy Parth setting up a impeccable trap to kill the Hussar but the Hussar flew right across it and revealed to everyone the secret Kingdom Astro has been hiding which caused the destruction of it by The Plunderer himself.

The hussar's flight finally ended when he was faced against The Great Plunderer himself making him a Keystone in the AOE2 Community.

Gelastic a.k.a Aditya pakda gaya GB road ke pass choti bachiyo ko pesab yantr dikhate hue. Aisa sunne me aa rhe ki yeh sab gelastic ki hobby Genshin Impact ko din me 7 ghante khelne ki wajah se hui hay. Police ne kaha quote unquote, "hizde ki Gand ki checking Kari andar se Amir Khan nikle". Mujhe koi andaza nhi aisi kese kar pate he yeh log magar mujhe ek kahawat yaad aati hay, "Aditya ne bajai been, bachiya aayi choti, uski Gand me dala aata, bahar aayi roti".

I don't have much friends, or you can say friends who have the same amount of passion toward gaming as me, but here in pink life people like games that I also like, a really big issue for me in discord servers is when someone impose there rules on someone, these guys doesn't do that kinda shit that's why I love to hangout with them, play with them, argue over some random thing to annoy them, it is like a circle of really good friends.

As the founding member of Pink Life, I would like to thank you all for being fun, helpful, passionate and enthusiastic members of our Pink Life Community. It's been more than a year since we created this server and I can remember almost everything we did in the meantime. The fights we had, the fun we had, the amount of bullying we did and even tolerated was just a blissful experience. First of all I would like to thank the rest of the founding members Rajiv, Shivam(Katari) and Aryan(Astro) for playing a major role since the beginning of the server, without you all this server couldn't have made it this far. I would also like to thank Rushikesh(Arewey) and Nikunj(Rawshot) for all the ideas and being few of the most memorable and contributing members of this server. And lastly I will thank all of you again for being such a pleasure to be with. Hope you all will stick with us through this ride as we will glide through the limits of the sky.

Love you all. Peace ✌ - Parth

Thank You.
